Eickmeier entered the station and requested to speak with an officer. I, Sgt. S. DeGroot spoke with her and she advised she wanted it documented that Kramer failed to pick up their daughter, Madeline for his visitation. Kramer was supposed to have Madeline starting Thursday (6/30/16) at 10:00am until Sunday. I asked if Kramer had called her to inform her of anything and she advised that she called Kramer on Wednesday and he advised her that he was working out of town the entire time of the visitation and would not be back in town until Sunday night.

I asked Eickmeier if it was still in their agreement that Kramer could not have someone baby sit the child or she was allowed to keep the child rather than having a baby sister. Eickmeier advised Kramer was not allowed to having anyone baby sit the child at all.

I advised Eickmeier the incident would be documented. She then advised Kevin requested to have visitation with the child started Sunday evening when he arrives home until Tuesday. Eickmeier told him no because she has other plans. She requested that be documented also.
